

Old Obidiah

Old Ob - i - di - ah jumped in the fire and the fire was hot so he jumped in the pot and the (etc. see below) slept all night!

Old Obidiah jumped in the fire
And the fire was hot so he jumped in the pot
And the pot was black so he jumped in the crack
And the crack was high so he jumped in the sky
And the sky was blue so he jumped in a canoe
And the canoe was shallow so he jumped in the tallow
And the tallow was soft so he jumped in the loft
And the loft was rotten so he jumped in the cotton
And the cotton was white so he slept all night!
